AN ACT

D.C. ACT 3-41

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

MAY 17 1979

To amend the District of Columbia Electrical Licensing and Bonding Regulations relating to the renewal of licenses.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA,

That this act may be cited as the "District of Columbia Electrical Licensing and Bonding Regulations Amendment Act of 1979".

Sec. 2. Section 453 of the District of Columbia Electrical Licensing and Bonding Regulations (Title 5J, D.C.R.R.) is amended to read as follows:

"453. (a) Any person licensed under these regulations who fails to renew his license prior to the expiration thereof will be permitted to renew such license without being required to take an examination in connection with such renewal, subject to the following conditions:

"(1) That such license was not revoked during the period for which it was issued, and that it was in full force and effect on the date of expiration;

"(2)(A) That application for such renewal is made in writing within 30 days from the date such license expired, and that it is accompanied by the required renewal fee, plus a $10 penalty fee; or

"(3) That application for such renewal is made in writing between 30 days and two (2) years from the date such license expired, and that it is accompanied by all required renewal fees, plus a penalty fee of $35 in the case of a journeyman electrician and a penalty fee of $75 in the case of a master electrician;

"(3) That the applicant for renewal has not engaged in the activity for which such license is required during the period he remained unlicensed after the expiration of the previous license, and submits to the Examining Board a notarized statement that he has not so engaged in such activity; and

"(4) That the applicant for renewal of such expired license personally appear before the Examining Board to answer such questions relative to his application for renewal as the Examining Board shall require.

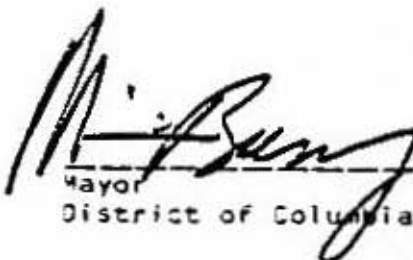

"(b) Nothing contained herein shall be construed as authorizing or permitting the holder of a license issued under the authority of these regulations, whose license has expired and has not been renewed, to continue to operate as if he were the holder of a valid license, and nothing contained herein shall be construed as waiving any provision in these regulations prohibiting any person from engaging in an activity for which a license is required without having first been issued a valid license to engage in such activity."

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect pursuant to the provisions of section 502(c) of the District of Columbia Self-Government and Governmental Reorganization Act.
