Sec. 5. Compliance with local law.

The Regional Authority shall make every effort to comply with the local laws of each of the Signatories regarding disclosure, appointment, and open meetings.

Sec. 6. Funding of the Regional Authority.

(a) The OCOG shall provide reasonable funds for the operation of the Regional Authority and the conduct of its business in accordance with the provisions of this act.

(b) For the purposes of this section, payment of any insurance premiums incurred by the Regional Authority under the authority granted to it by section 7 shall not be considered operations funds referred to in subsection (a) of this section. The OCOG shall pay only such insurance premiums as are reasonable.

(c) The OCOG shall not be responsible for any financial liability that the Regional Authority may incur under section 7.

(d) The Regional Authority shall submit to the OCOG a planned budget for the Regional Authority's next fiscal year, adopted consistent with section 4, no less than 90 days before the beginning of the next fiscal year.

Sec. 7. Regional Authority oversight; additional powers.

(a) The Regional Authority, in recognition of its oversight responsibility over the OCOG, shall have access to:

- (1) The quarterly financial statements of the OCOG;
- (2) The annual business plans of the OCOG; and
- (3) All other OCOG documents necessary to achieve its oversight purpose.

(b) The Regional Authority shall have the power to enforce OCOG budgetary and planning changes when:

(1) Review by the Regional Authority of the OCOG financial statements, annual business plans, or other documents contemplated in subsection (a) of this section suggests:

(A) Economic shortfalls that would possibly trigger the Regional Authority's liability outlined in section 7(c); or

(B) The OCOG will fail to host the Olympic Games in a manner that would satisfy the requirements of the USOC or the IOC; and

(2) Such changes are supported by a majority of the voting members of the Regional Authority, notwithstanding the quorum requirements of section 4(c)(5).

(c) The Regional Authority, in recognition of its duties as overseer of the OCOG, shall:

(1) Be bound by the terms of, cause the OCOG to perform, and guaranty performance of, OCOG's obligations under all documents necessary and appropriate to the pursuit of the Olympic Games;

(2) Certify the OCOG's performance of such obligations as requested by the USOC from time to time;

(3) Accept liability for the OCOG, if any, as far as required by all documents necessary and appropriate to the pursuit and hosting of the Olympic Games; provided, that:

(A) With regard to third-party tort liabilities, the OCOG will indemnify the District of Columbia against any and all such claims and provide that the District of Columbia be named as an additional insured on all appropriate insurance policies. Nothing contained herein shall in any way modify the District of Columbia's existing liability limitation; and

(B) With regard to all other liabilities arising out of this paragraph, the OCOG agrees to hold the District of Columbia harmless and indemnify the District of Columbia for any such losses. If the District of Columbia incurs any liabilities, these shall count against the total limit (or cap) on the District of Columbia's liabilities as set forth in section 8(a)(3).

(4) Accept liability, if any, with the OCOG, for any financial deficit of the OCOG or the Olympic Games, as follows:

(A) The OCOG shall be responsible for any amount up to $25 million;

(B) The Regional Authority shall be liable for any amount in excess of $25 million, but not to exceed an additional $175 million; and

(C) Except as set forth in existing applicable law, the OCOG and the Regional Authority shall not be limited in their choice of funding sources for covering possible financial losses, including the purchase of insurance, if commercially available and reasonably priced.

(d) The Regional Authority, in its financial oversight and safeguard role, shall ensure:

(1) No legacy programs, funds, or accounts shall be funded from any of the proceeds of the 2012 Olympic Games until all budgetary and operational financial obligations of the OCOG and the Regional Authority for hosting the Olympic Games are first met; and

(2) No liability for any financial deficit resulting from the 2012 Olympic Games shall accrue to the Regional Authority (or the Signatories) until all budgetary or operational financial surpluses of the OCOG, if any, are applied to all outstanding financial obligations of OCOG and the Regional Authority, if any, accrued exclusively in connection with hosting the Olympic Games.

(e) The Regional Authority, to facilitate its oversight responsibility over the OCOG, shall have the additional powers:

- (1) To sue and be sued in contract and in tort;
- (2) To complain and defend in all courts;
- (3) To implead and be impleaded;
- (4) To enter into contracts;
- (5) To hire appropriate staff; and
- (6) Any additional powers granted to it by act.

Sec. 8. Indemnification.

(a) Any liability incurred by the Regional Authority, not covered by insurance under section 7(c)(4)(C), shall be further indemnified by the Signatories, in proportion to the relative economic benefit currently expected to accrue to each Signatory from hosting the Olympic Games, as follows:

- (1) The State of Maryland shall be liable for 53%;
- (2) The Commonwealth of Virginia shall be liable for 19%; and
- (3) The District of Columbia shall be liable for 28%.

(b) Each of the Signatories may provide for its share of any possible liability in any manner it may choose, as befits each Signatory's independent commitment.

Sec. 9. Commitments of Signatories.

(a) As appropriate to its individual jurisdiction and specific role in hosting the 2012 Olympic Games, each Signatory shall:

- (1) Ensure that necessary facilities are built and transportation infrastructure improvements take place, including government funding as appropriate;
- (2) Provide access to existing state/city-controlled facilities and other important resources as specified in WBRC 2012's bid proposal in accordance with applicable law and contractual obligations; and
- (3) Provide adequate security, fire protection, and other government related services at a reasonable cost to ensure for the safe and orderly operation of the Olympic Games.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, any financial obligation or liability that the District of Columbia may incur by virtue of this act shall be subject to the availability of appropriations authorized by Congress at the time the obligation or liability is created.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, any provision of this act that grants the Regional Authority any authority, power, duty, or function that conflicts with the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 777; D.C. Official Code § 1-201 passim), including sections 6, 8, and 9, shall be approved by Congress prior to the exercise of that authority, power, duty, or function by the Regional Authority.

Sec. 10. Fiscal impact statement.

The Council adopts the fiscal impact statement of the Chief Financial Officer as the fiscal impact statement required by section 602(c)(3) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 813; D.C. Official Code § 1-206.02(c)(3)).

Sec. 11. Effective date.

(a) This act shall take effect following approval by the Mayor (or in the event of veto by the Mayor, action by the Council to override the veto), approval by the Financial Responsibility and Management Assistance Authority as provided in section 203(a) of the District of Columbia Financial Responsibility and Management Assistance Act of 1995, approved April 17, 1995 (109
