To amend, on a temporary basis, the Prevention of Child Abuse and Neglect Act of 1977 to establish that an individual with a certain criminal conviction, or who lives with other adults with certain criminal convictions, shall be disqualified from receiving a license, approval, or permission to adopt or foster a child or to otherwise have custody of a child as legal guardian, kinship caregiver, or custodian pursuant to court order under section 16-2320 of the District of Columbia Official Code, to identify a list of felony convictions for which an individual, despite a certain conviction, or the conviction of an adult living in the home of the individual, may qualify for approval, licensure, or permission to adopt or foster a child or to otherwise have custody of a child as legal guardian, kinship caregiver, or custodian pursuant to court order under section 16-2320 of the District of Columbia Official Code, if, after a discretionary agency review, a determination is made that the approval, licensure, or permission would be consistent with the health, safety, and welfare of the child, and to establish that in such cases funds that would otherwise be available under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act for adoption-assistance payments or foster-care-maintenance payments shall not be made on behalf of the child; and to amend section 16-308 of the District of Columbia Official Code to permit the court to dispense with an investigation, report, and interlocutory decree, but not a criminal records check, under specified circumstances.
