advance adjustment in the rent ceiling equal to the portion which is attributable to the rise in the cost of heating oil of any adjustment of general applicability that the Commission may find to be warranted under paragraph (1). No such advance adjustment shall exceed the increase in the operating cost of a rental accommodation resulting directly from a rise in the cost of heating oil purchased to provide heat or hot water to such rental accommodation, nor shall any such advance adjustment be implemented unless the landlord has complied with the notice provisions of sections 208(q) and 904(b). Any such advance adjustment shall be included by the Commission in computing the operating cost ratio that the Commission considers in any determination that adjustment of general applicability is warranted under paragraph (1).
